VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

WORKERS' COMPENSATION HEARINGS OFFICER V

SR- 26 / OAHU

Salary: $4,810 monthly

Opening Date: March 13, 2014

Closing Date: Continuous

RECRUITMENT INFORMATION

Recruitment Number 14-037 – Downtown Honolulu. A continuous recruitment can close at any time. An equal opportunity employer.

DUTIES SUMMARY

Independently performs difficult workers' compensation claims examination for the determination of workers' compensation benefits, requiring the conduct of administrative hearing; makes a variety of determinations; provides consultative services regarding workers' compensation matters to representative of claimants, insurance carriers and employers; and performs other related duties as assigned.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must meet all the requirements for the position they are seeking as of the date of the application, unless otherwise specified. Please note that unless specifically indicated, the required education and experience may not be gained concurrently.

Your possession of the required amount of experience will not in itself be accepted as proof of qualification for the position. Overall paid or unpaid experience must be of such scope and responsibility as to conclusively demonstrate that you have the ability to perform the duties of the position. Note: Your calculation of experience must be based on full-time, 40-hour work weeks. Part-time experience must be pro-rated. Example: Twelve (12) months of experience at 20 hours/week is equivalent to six (6) months of experience, not one (1) year. Also, hours worked in excess of 40 hours/week will not be credited. Example: Twelve (12) months of experience at 60 hours/week is equivalent to one (1) year of experience, not one and a half (1 ½) years.

To qualify, you must meet all of the following requirements:

Education: Bachelor's degree from an accredited four (4) year college or university.

Excess work experience as described below in the general or specialized experience sections or any other responsible administrative, professional, or other analytical work experience which would provide knowledge, skills and abilities comparable to those acquired in four (4) years of successful study while fulfilling a prescribed college curriculum may be substituted for education on a year-for-year basis.

The education or experience background must also demonstrate the ability to write clearly and comprehensively such materials as report and analyses read and interpret complex written material; speak persuasively and effectively; and solve complex problems logically and systematically.

General Experience: One and one-half (1 ½) years of progressively responsible professional, investigative, or other analytical work which involved gathering, evaluating and analyzing facts and other pertinent information; identifying, evaluating and analyzing issues involved, interpreting and applying provisions of the Hawaii State Workers' Compensation laws, rules and regulations to determine appropriate courses of action and recommending courses of actions. Such experience must have demonstrated the ability to elicit information orally and in writing, apply problem solving methods and techniques, and prepare clear and concise written reports of facts, issues, application of the law and recommendations for action.

Examples of general experience include (but are not limited to) the following:

- A. Active participation in the examination and determination of disfigurement and/or disability awards for workers' compensation claims;
- B. Enforcement of workers' compensation laws, rules and regulations by investigating and examining employers financial records and/or related personnel records, interviewing employers, employees or others; identification of violations or lack of alleged violations and preparing reports recommending action;
- C. Representation of self-insured employer, insurance carrier, employee or other party, as a regular work assignment, regarding claims for workers' compensation benefits and awards which involved review of pertinent case documents, determination of issues and advocacy of the clients' position relative to the case.

Specialized Experience: Two (2) years of progressively responsible professional experience of the kind and nature described under General Experience, above, which involved examination of claims for workers' compensation benefits and awards which included conducting administrative hearings for determination of awards or participating in administrative hearings as an advocate of the client self-insured employer or insurance carrier or other interested party as a regular work assignment.

At least two (2) years of experience must have been comparable in scope and difficulty to Workers' Compensation Hearings Officer III in the State service (independent worker – see class specifications).

Non-Qualifying Experience: Clerical work experience, although it may be in the field of workers' compensation.

Substitutions Allowed:

A. Satisfactory completion of course work required for a law degree from a school of law accredited by a nationally recognized specialized accrediting body (or course work deemed comparable by a nationally recognized specialized accrediting body) which included study of legal research and writing, evidence, contracts, civil procedures, and torts, may be substituted for the General or Specialized Experience required on the basis of one semester of full-time course work load for one-half (1/2) year of experience up to a maximum of one and one-half (1-1/2) years of General Experience and/or one and one-half (1-1/2) years of the Specialized Experience.

This course work may not be substituted for experience comparable to the class Workers' Compensation Hearings Officer V.

B. Excess Specialized Experience of the type and quality described may be substituted for the required General Experience on a year-for-year basis.

Supplemental Questionnaire - Submit with Application

1. REQUIRED SUPPLEMENTAL QUESTIONS

The responses you provide to these Supplemental Questions will be used in combination with your application to determine whether you meet the qualification requirements and/or your final score. Failure to provide detailed and complete information may result in your application being rejected or receiving a lower score. Please do not submit a resume in place of completing the Supplemental Questions.

In general, proof of education obtained from and/or submitted through the internet will not be accepted.

Education obtained outside the United States must be comparable to education earned at an accredited school in the United States. We also reserve the right to request further information about your academic program, evidence of comparability, or an original transcript.

To receive credit for substitute, on call or volunteer experience, applicants should submit an official letter of verification. The letter should include the job title, employment dates, number of hours worked, a description of the duties performed, and a contact name and phone number.

Any information you submit may be verified. Supporting documents must be submitted within five (5) working days of the filing of your application.

When applying for this position, I understand that I must thoroughly complete the Education and Work Experience sections of my application and the Supplemental Questions. This includes a detailed description of each position that I feel qualifies me for the job I am seeking.

I have read the above statement and understand that failure to provide sufficient detailed information may result in my application being rejected or my receiving a lower examination score. I also understand that I may not submit resumes in lieu of filling out the application or answering the Supplemental Questions. However, I may attach a resume to the application to provide additional information.
